

Date For Your Diary

Our cinemas will now reopen from Friday 31 July, due to recent changes in the film release calendar.

When we open, we'll be showing a mix of classic titles and new releases, including Alice Winocour's acclaimed Proxima. Christopher Nolan's Tenet will now open on 12 August and Disney's Mulan will be released on 19 August.

Our team of film programmers are busy working on our reopening schedule and our ticket on sale date will be announced in a future email.

Upcoming reopenings remain subject to final clarifications and confirmation in relation to government COVID-19 restrictions.

Picturehouse Members will also have their Memberships extended to cover the period of time that our cinemas have been closed. We'll send another email to Members just before we open with further details.

Thank you for your patience, ongoing support and passion for our cinemas. We're looking forward to welcoming you back to enjoy the best of cinema on the big screen.

Our Recent Filmmaker Q&As

We've been busy over on our YouTube channel, talking to some of our favourite filmmakers about their recent releases. Both of these live Q&As are now available to watch at your leisure.

True History Of The Kelly Gang Q&A with director Justin Kurzel, along with cast members George Mackay, Essie Davis and Earl Cave.

The Last Tree Q&A with director Shola Amoo and cast members Samuel Adewunmi and Ruthxjiah Bellenea.

Recommended Film: Blindspotting

Director of Programming Carol McKay has looked at what great films are available to watch at home.

This week Carol's re-watched Carlos López Estrada's Blindspotting, starring Daveed Diggs. The film is available to rent for free on Google Play until midnight on 2 July courtesy of Lionsgate UK.

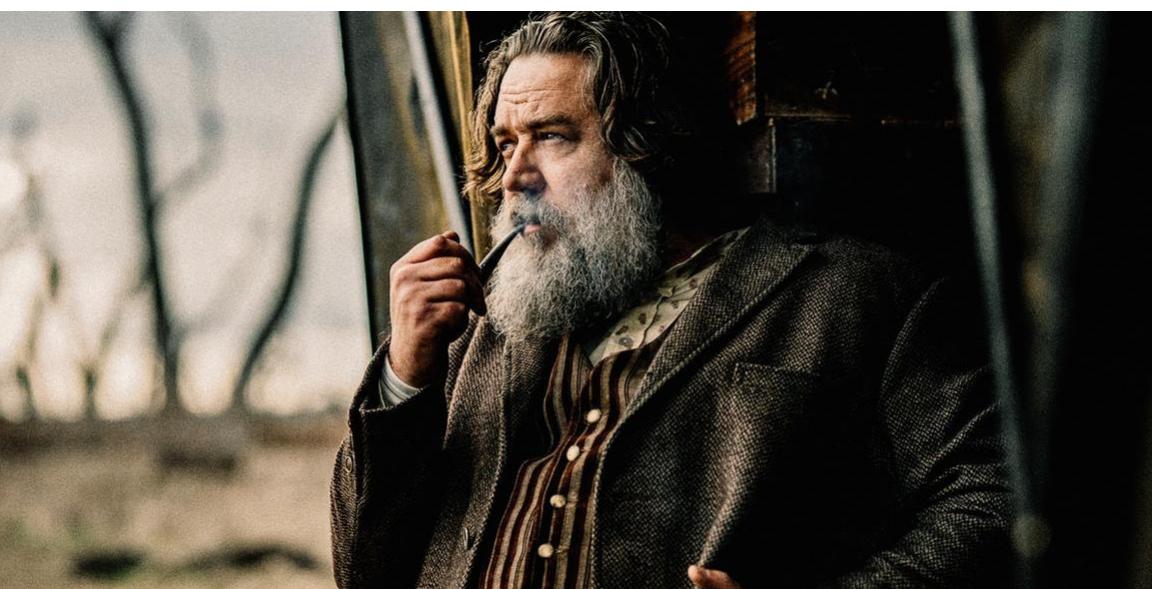

Film critic Elena Lazic takes a closer look at Blindspotting over on the Picturehouse Blog.

Elena discusses the incredible interplay between stars Daveed Diggs and Rafael Casal, and how the film is just as pressing now as when we first played it at Picturehouse Cinemas last summer.
