

Transcript: Judge Rudy, Episode 666

Announcer: You are about to enter the courtroom of Judge Edith Rudy. The people are unfortunately real. The cases are absurd. The rulings are final. This is her courtroom. This is Judge Rudy.

Bailiff Crane: Order, all rise.

Announcer: President Ronald Dump is suing Mother Nature for the loss of his jet ski during Hurricane Therma. Mother Nature is countersuing President Dump for defamation of character.

Bailiff Crane: Be seated! Your honor, this is case number 666. Dump vs. Nature. All parties have been sworn in.

Judge Rudy: Crane, did you vote for this dummy?

Bailiff Crane: No, Judge.

Judge Rudy: [Taps her finger on her head] Smart man, Crane.

President Dump: Objection!

Judge Rudy: There is no objecting in my courtroom -

President Dump: [Interrupts] I can't even get a fair trial in my own country!

Judge Rudy: Mr. President, do you know the difference between a trial and small claims? No, you don't. Because you are an idiot. Now listen to me, I want you to start at the beginning. Do you know what the beginning of something is? Probably not...just start talking and tell me why you're here.

President Dump: I'm here because this wretched woman [points to defendant] blew into my private resort in Florida, Key Laze - O, with her hundred and thirty mile an hour winds - uninvited, mind you - I have a very limited guest list, which I will not reveal -

Judge Rudy: [Motions hands] Get to the point, Dump.

President Dump: Yes, Ruuuuuuuuuudy. This hag, literally look at her [points to defendant], she's haggard and worn - the windblown look does not suit you, Nature.

Judge Rudy: Dump!

President Dump: Okay, okay. She took my jet ski, swirled it all up in the air and threw it back on my private golf course a twisted pile of metal! Unrepairable!

Judge Rudy: That is not a word.

President Dump: Yes, it is, I invented it. I invent a lot of things because I'm smart. Anyhoooo... I want her arrested and deported.

Judge Rudy: Crane, pinch me... please pinch me. [Rolls eyes] Am I being punk'd?

Bailiff Crane: Sorry, Judge. This is real life.

Judge Rudy: I'm about this close [pinches fingers together] to throwing your case out, Dumpy. Tell me what you paid for your little water toy.

President Dump: It's priceless.

Judge Rudy: The only thing that is priceless is your idiocy. Now hand over a receipt of purchase.

President Dump: I don't have one.

Judge Rudy: A self-revered business man like yourself can't produce proof of purchase?

President Dump: I can't release classified information.

Judge Rudy: [Turns to Crane and mimics cuckoo with her hand] Dump, your case is dismissed, and you will now zip it! Not one word!

President Dump: Uh -

Judge Rudy: What don't you understand about 'not one word'? Shut it! [Turns to Mother Nature] Madame, please explain to the court why you are countersuing President Dump.

Mother Nature: [Blows around in a funnel-like formation] Sorry, I just get so worked up when I'm disrespected. Please give me a moment.

Judge Rudy: Take your time, Ms. Nature.

President Dump: Why are you so nice to her? You were mean to me!

Judge Rudy: Crane, please go over and stand by Dump. If he says one word or even looks like he is going to say one word, smack him over the head. Go on, Ms. Nature...

Mother Nature: [Blossoms into a sunflower] Thank you, your honor. Ever since Hurricane Therma hit the Florida panhandle President Dump has been incessantly tweeting about me and defaming my character.

Judge Rudy: Crane, will you please read the documented tweets Ms. Nature has presented?

Bailiff Crane: @MotherNature purposely destroyed my jet ski because she doesn't like my stance on climate change! Get a day job, lady, you suck.

@MotherNature You are destroying the hopes and dreams of our children with your acts! Enough is enough!

@MotherNature You are not real! China invented global warming to destroy the coal industry. Millions of jobs lost! You were manufactured by their government!

@MotherNature I hate you.

@MotherNature A real lady would not cause this much destruction. Have you ever rode a jet ski? They are fun! Do you not know how to have fun? Get a life!

@MotherNature We will build a wall so yuuuge that it will bitch slap you to the moon! We're building it to the sky! You will pay for it. Or Mexico will. Probably Mexico, you look homeless.

@MotherNature Why won't you respond?

Judge Rudy: Madame, did you respond?

Mother Nature: [Folds into a twenty foot wave] Sorry for my appearance, my blood pressure is rising. And yes, once.

Judge Rudy: Crane, please read this young lady's tweet.

Bailiff Crane: @realDonaldTrump Leaf me alone.

Judge Rudy: [Bursts into laughter] Hilarious! Good one, Ms. Nature. Now what exactly are you asking for from President Dump?

Mother Nature: [Molts into a maple tree] Ten thousand dollars, the most you can ask for in small claims court.

Judge Rudy: [Looks at President Dump] Take a good look at Ms. Nature. That is what smart looks like. Get it, now? She's smart. You're dumb. Smart, dumb. Smart, dumb. Got it?

President Dump: [Shrugs] Whatever, Ruuuuuuuuuuudy. Don't expect a Supreme Court nomination out of me.

Judge Rudy: I don't expect anything from you, Duuuuuuuuuuumpy. [Rolls eyes] Now, Ms. Nature, what do you intend to do with the ten thousand dollars?

Mother Nature: [Illuminates into a rainbow] Donate it to a real politician and climate activist, Al Gore. I would like to fund his next documentary on global warming.

Judge Rudy: Very good! The court rules in favor of the defendant!

Announcer: Any parting words for Mother Nature, President?

President Dump: You're a loser.

Announcer: Mother Nature, any response?

Mother Nature: [Shapes into lightening, thunder rolls in background] Tsunami later, Dump.
