

2021 Upcycled Gift Guide

This holiday season, let's not make more trash. Instead, give gifts that contribute to saving our environment.

Americans generate an extra 7 million pounds of trash between Thanksgiving and New Years day, much of which can be avoided by giving more sustainable gifts.

Celebrate the holidays by making a positive impact. Shop these gift ideas from environmentally conscious companies whose products use upcycled materials:

Under $50

Hum Nutrition's award-winning beauty nutrition supplements help you glow from the inside out—supporting healthier skin, hair, body, and improved mood. All products are consciously packaged using 100% recyclable bottles from ocean-bound plastic. Even the shipping boxes & wrapping are recyclable and biodegradable.

$50-150

SPLITS59 edgy and retro-inspired activewear makes functional and fashionable clothing to live, work, breathe, and sleep in. The brand carries eco-friendly and upcycled capsules you can feel good about wearing, including recycled tech flex pieces, and everything is made in L.A.

Under $200

2°EAST carries a wide range of watch styles for men, women, and kids. All products are made from various sustainable materials like recycled plastic bottles and zero-waste conflict-free rose gold.

Photo Cred: 2 Degrees East

Old Sold Vintage Jewelry & Accessories products are handmade and crafted from 100% authentic repurposed designer buttons and charms. From keychains and charm necklaces to purses and one-off vintage finds, each piece is custom made.

Photo cred: Old Soul Vintage Jewelry

$200+

Chairish is an online gold mine for shopping high end “flea market” home furnishings and art. The company sources home goods, vintage furniture, and décor from flea and vintage markets so you don't have to. Recycling at its most elegant!

Photo Cred: Home Accents Today