

DRA Homes- The Best Builders in Chennai

Building your own house is a massive event and one that is made possible after years of committed efforts and hard work. It's a dream that is nurtured with great passion, excitement, and anticipation and brings unbridled ecstasy and relaxation upon fulfillment. You would think once you are ready with all the resources and have got all ends covered to finally initiate the building and construction work of your new house, you have accomplished the biggest step towards fulfilling your dream. However, at this point, it would be wrong to think that the biggest hurdle is out of the way as the crucial decision of contracting a competent builder is yet to be taken. A decision that will eventually determine whether your house truly pans out to be one of your dreams!

Finding the best builder in Chennai can be an uphill task especially when there are an array of options to choose from. However, with extensive research and looking at the right places, you can find an ideal builder who is well-equipped and capable to undertake your project with perfection and bring it to successful completion. We, at DRA Homes, are established builders serving the Chennai area. With over 33 years of experience behind our backs and a track record of more than 11,000 happy customers, we are widely termed as the best builders in Chennai. We pride ourselves to provide exceptional construction services by adapting your unique choices and preferences. Some salient features, as well as practices that have gradually made us the best builders in Chennai, are:-

Quality of construction:-

Quality is at the heart of our company. It's the foundation upon which we have forged a stately reputation in the market. Our commitment to ensuring that the highest standards of construction are maintained is second to none. Our previous projects stand testaments to the high quality of construction we have consistently offered. You can visit our past projects to behold the products of meticulous planning and execution performed by our expert builders and workers. Every successfully completed project that we have under our belt is a natural and stupendous blend of art and science, serving aesthetic as well as functional purposes impeccably. Our constructions are optimum in terms of fitting and frames and are guaranteed to stay in shape for years. We only use authentic, high-quality products and materials for even the smallest aspect of the building. You won't notice cracks on the walls for years owing to the high-grade paint we use on every structure. Our endeavor and success in upholding the optimal quality of construction for every project is the major reason why we are the best builders in Chennai.

Performance History and Track Record:-

All our projects are executed in a legally compliant manner with utmost primacy lent to the fulfillment of all legal requirements. We have all the necessary certificates and documents that will protect our valued customers against any legal complications arising in the future. We take due permissions and approvals from competent authorities of the Municipal Corporation before commencing any construction project. Our authenticity is further substantiated by the positive testimonials we have received from our customers regarding our services. We are fortunate enough to have served some of the most decent and cooperative customers who have expressly endorsed us as the best builders in Chennai.

On-time Delivery:-

We believe this is by far the most desired feature buyers want their construction partners to provide. At DRA, on-time possession and delivery are at the apex of every construction activity we undertake. In fact, we claim we are the definition of on-time possession! Since we are a customer-centric company, we realize the pain and bane customers feel if their project gets even marginally delayed beyond the stipulated deadline. We follow strict procedures and schedules and maintain a proper record of daily construction activities to complete projects well before the agreed delivery date. Our OTP (on-time possession) commitment has helped us become the best builders in Chennai.

Organized and innovative workflow

We follow a seamless workflow process that is assigned, initiated, tracked, and recorded using advanced, state-of-the-art technology. We have employed cutting edge software which enables us to integrate every step in the construction process. This results in the formation of a comprehensive, flexible, and lucid workflow. To ensure an adequate supply of materials all the time without any delay, we maintain a detailed account of usage and procure goods well before exhaustion.

Number of projects completed

We have successfully completed numerous projects which indicates that we have a diverse portfolio with abundant skills and experience. Our projects continue to stand the test of time and are structurally as well as aesthetically intact. We are very adaptive and try our best to animate the vision our customers have of their dream house. Our customers speak of us very highly and we continue to stay in touch with them even after the completion of their project for maintenance assistance and other related services.

Conclusion

As we stated at the start, building your own house is an event, and we make it a successful and prosperous one for you! Invest your hard-earned money with us and receive high-quality, customized construction, on-time delivery and possession, cooperative and courteous approach, and professional craftsmanship as returns! Indeed we are the best builders in Chennai and we will do our level best to keep assuming this title for years to come!
