Let them be their own BARISTA

For those mornings when they 'just can't even' or evenings hosting the most demanding caffeine connoisseurs, give the gift of coffee mastery with Smeg

Nothing says good morning life a fresh cup of coffee and the best machines produce a high-quality cup in simple steps. Here's the checklist: solid build, easy to use, hassle-free cleaning, the promise of a cup made to the drinker's taste and stylish looks. Enter, Smeg's grinder, drip-filter machine and milk frother. The premium Italian brand's appliances ooze character, with a retro vibe and playful colourways, and will take pride of place in any design-conscious kitchen. Its grinder can deliver an impressive 30 levels of grain size, so users can get it just right for their espresso machine, moka, cafetière or, for the ultimate Smeg experience, a drip-filter coffee machine. With a 40-minute keep-warm function, capacity for ten cups and a timer so you can wake up to the smell of fresh coffee, the drip-filter is a convenient, functional design statement. And for those who love a flat white, hot chocolate or cinnamon-spiced latte? Add extra indulgence with the Smeg milk frother; featuring six automatic functions, it gives just the right level of froth in minutes. So, this Christmas, why not give the gift of the best-looking wake-up call going?

Strike it LUCKY

Whether you're buying for a fragrance enthusiast or the man who has everything, let the scent of Carolina Herrera's Bad Boy lead you to Christmas victory

Buying a scent for other people is no small challenge. From their personality and wardrobe choices to how they prefer to spend their evenings, there's a lot to consider and the pitfalls are many. Luckily, with the Bad Boy eau de toilette, Carolina Herrera has created a new scent packed with enough magnetic power and intrigue to make it a future fragrance icon and a failsafe gift.

Showcased in a heroic, lightning-shaped flacon, Bad Boy is more than a scent; it's an ode to free-spirited men of generations passed. Notes of red and white pepper fuse with Italian green bergamot and sage for fresh aromas with boundless energy. Once spritzed on the skin, Bad Boy evolves with the intensity of tonka bean, cedarwood and cocoa absolute for a mysterious edge that takes a sensual turn. It's a multifaceted, playful and empowering in its aroma as its bottle is bold: literally, it's a bolt of positive energy. For the modern rebel who dares to break the rules and walk their own path, gift him Carolina Herrera's Bad Boy this Christmas – and the start of an adventure that goes far beyond a new signature scent.

Small but MIGHTY

Add these beautifully formed little wonders to someone's stocking this Christmas

For the outdoors ENTHUSIAST

It may be the season to be jolly, but it's also a time to take your leisure pursuits seriously. With the Garmin Marq Collection, you'll be giving more than just the gift of time this season

With a new year rapidly approaching, thoughts turn to the little ways we can improve our lives. But today it's not enough to know we're out there doing it; we want to know how well we're doing it. Garmin understands that as well as anyone, so to celebrate its 30th anniversary, it reimagined the tool watch with its Marq collection. Designed for sailors, pilots, golfers, drivers, athletes and adventurers and crafted from select materials of the utmost quality, every Garmin Marq guarantees high performance in demanding environments.

Take the Golfer. With more than 41,000 preloaded golf courses and a "virtual caddie" to help with aim, it says the player came to win. For those with endurance-based goals, the Athlete displays what matters most, such as VO2 max and recovery time. Then there's the Adventurer, which features topographic maps, altimeter and barometer.

For the person in your life wanting to fine-tune their golfing technique, working their way up to a half marathon or simply an outdoor enthusiast, inspire investment in their future self with a gift of a Garmin Marq watch.
