HEY, GIRL!

We are a women-owned business, and

95%

of our employees are women. We are in the business of supporting and inspiring women, and that means a great deal to us!

"I know I'm biased, but where else can you shop for the cutest clothing and accessories and also enjoy a yummy lavender latte?"

SHOP WITH A LATTE IN HAND

→ I know I'm biased, but where else can you shop for the cutest clothing and accessories and also enjoy a yummy lavender latte? Almost all of the items at Morning Lavender Boutique are under $100 and are curated by me. We have new arrivals weekly, so there's always a fresh assortment of dresses, skirts, tops and more.

INTERIOR INSPO

→ I am drawn to visually inspiring items, so I love to frequent home decor boutiques for inspiration and to shop for new pieces. One of my favorite spots is McGee & Co. in Costa Mesa. I love that this shop is owned by a husband-and-wife interior design team.

GET THE PARTY STARTED

→ Wild Child Party is a great spot for party supplies and special balloons! Just stepping into their shop puts a smile on my face because it's so happy and festive. They also do custom installations and event styling!

GIFTS GALORE!

→ I love M Lovewell in Santa Ana. They have an adorable selection of greeting cards and stationery items. I find special gifts here that give a very personal touch. Plus, they host a variety of crafty workshops!

SELF-CARE SUNDAYS

→ Miiibox in Irvine has a wonderful selection of Asian beauty products! I love going there and picking up a refreshing face mask for myself; it's a great pick-me-up after a long day of work. ■
