HATTERS GONNA HAT

→ The folks at Goorin Bros. really know hats. With a wide variety of designs and styles, they're on the forefront of hat fashion, and I really trust them with fit and quality. A good hat is worth the investment. They have several locations, but my favorite store is located on the renowned Melrose Avenue, so you can show off your new hat as you shop, walk and live your best LA life.

THINGS I LOVE ABOUT FASHION

1. Expression. My style often reflects how I'm feeling.
2. Individuality. When deciding what I'm going to wear, I always try to make it my own.
3. Confidence. Nothing compares to how you feel when you love what you're wearing.

MOST IMPORTANTLY, BE YOU

When it comes to style, you can't ignore what's trendy, but I think the fun part of fashion is being creative and being yourself.

*"I am so grateful to have a career that allows me to travel the world and eat some of the best foods and experience as much as I have."

IT'S CALLED [FASH-UHN]

→ I don't necessarily believe that fashion needs to be expensive, but I do love to splurge every once in a while. Maxfield is a luxury boutique that merges high-end fashion with modern art. They often have rare designer pieces and an ever-changing art gallery. And you never know if you'll find yourself shopping alongside a famous actor or rapper. It's always an experience.

ONE MAN'S TRASH...

→ At Wasteland, not only will you find designer pieces and one-of-a-kind items for a low price, but they also have a large consignment selection as well. I started buying designer jeans here when I was young because they were cheaper than full price, and now I just love the thrill of what I'm possibly going to find!

FRESH-FACED

→ With several locations, you're probably within minutes of a Skin Laundry. They specialize in laser facials, and in about 15 minutes, you can leave there with a noticeably improved complexion. They have a full range of products for all skin types—I always leave feeling rejuvenated. Also, your first facial is completely free!

SHOES ARE A MAN'S BEST FRIEND

→ Reminiscent of a speakeasy, Bodega is a shoe shop disguised as a produce market, but once you go through the warehouse door, you're in an 8,000-square-foot shoe Mecca. Bodega carries a wide range of shoes, including a whole floor of luxury brands and exclusive collaborations. If I'm looking for it, chances are Bodega has it. ■
