To whom it may concern:

Regarding: Shaba Mohseni

Ms. Mohseni worked for the Competitor Group, Inc. as an Event Manager for the Team Roll division. Her status was as a regular full time employee; her dates of employment were February 16, 2010 through September 3, 2010.

It is my understanding that Ms. Mohseni is leaving CGI for personal reasons. She provided two weeks' notice and is leaving in good standing with the Company.

If you have any questions regarding her employment, please contact me via email at dstjohn@competitorgroup.com or via my direct line at (858) 228-3747.

Thank you,

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Shaba Mohseni for a position within Marketing and Public Relations.

Over the past several years, I have gotten to know Shaba through her involvement with the local bicycle community, which she works tirelessly to improve and promote. She has a gift for rallying support for events and encouraging participation from diverse groups. Her energy and optimism are contagious.

As board members of the San Luis Obispo County Bicycle Coalition, we have collaborated on various committees and projects. I have come to know Shaba as a reliable source of vision, expertise and follow-through—three traits that rarely come together in one individual, especially in a volunteer setting.

Shaba is a uniquely talented individual and a true pleasure to work with. I have no doubt that she will be an asset to your organization.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Tierney:

As chair and publicity director for the San Luis Obispo Local Organizing Committee, Stage 4 of the Amgen Tour of California, I have had the great experience of working closely with Shaba Mohseni. For more than two years, Ms. Mohseni has been an integral part of the local committee which recruits volunteers, manages local publicity and coordinates technical aspects of Stage 4 of the Amgen Tour of California. Shaba brought extensive knowledge of the community to the table and was able to effectively utilize that knowledge to establish some of the most popular segments of the tour. She established and coordinated the educational component outreach in San Luis Obispo County, developed the popular essay contest which reaches out to the young cyclists in the area – including establishing the theme, engaging publicity, and overseeing the judging. In addition, she offered information and help to other sub-committees that has in turn made the San Luis Obispo stage so successful. In addition to her volunteer work with the committee, she found time to oversee the bike valet.

Shaba is an insightful and motivated individual. I hold the highest respect for her capabilities. She has made worthwhile choices in work, volunteerism and support for local organizations...and San Luis Obispo County is benefiting from her tireless efforts. I think she would be a thoughtful choice as the Sierra Club Volunteer Coordinator. Her consistent contributions to the community are excellent cases in point.

To Whom It May Concern:

I had the pleasure of working with Shaba Mohseni for the better part of a year when our two environmental organizations shared space in the same building. I never failed to be impressed by the work she did as the Project Coordinator for ECOSLO, the community's oldest independent environmental organization, a position description that barely began to describe what she did there.

She handled planning, promotion and fundraising while coordinating interns, volunteers and staff. She handled both project planning and the day to day requirements of her office with notable aplomb and a high capacity to cope with the pressure, stress levels and difficult personalities that go along with intensive multi-tasking and overworked/understaffed environmental non-profits. She worked with the same high level of professionalism whether with residents who walked in off the street to ask general questions or with state and city officials.

ECOSLO has been hard-pressed to replace her with another single staffer who performs as many tasks with as much proficiency.

Please feel free to call me at (805) 541-8717 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Andrew Christie
